

Getting to bauma

The Messe München trade-fair center in the heart of Europe has an outstanding transportation infrastructure. Whether you are traveling to the fair by plane, train, automobile or with public transportation, we have put together some extensive information and research tools to help you plan your trip.

Let's meet again

bauma

Date: Apr 4 - 10, 2022

By plane

The second-largest airport in Germany guarantees you excellent continental and intercontinental connections. Special fares are available for bauma.

- Getting there by plane
- ➔ Lufthansa special offer
- ➔ Airport-Messe-Shuttle

By car

The trade-fair center is located directly on the A 94 motorway in eastern Munich. A dynamic traffic guidance system will guide you to the fair.

- Getting there by car
- We promote e-mobility
- bauma Camping

By train

Taking the train to Munich to attend bauma is convenient, safe and environmentally friendly.

- Getting there by train
- Special offer Deutsche Bahn

Taking public transportation

Quick and environmentally friendly: The trade-fair center is directly accessible via two subway stations—Messestadt West and Messestadt Ost.

- Taking public transportation
- ➔ Regional shuttle bus